1. It is believed by some Albanians that the recent purge in the Politburo of the Communist Party of Albania* tended to strengthen the position of General Hoxha in the Albanian Government. Other measures taken to strengthen the regimes were said to be similar local purges, as in the Epitropes region. Further, all administrative posts are now in the hands of Hoxha followers. On the other hand, the entire State security mechanism is considered to be controlled by Shehu; this division of power (Hoxha controlling the political machine of the Communist Party, and Shehu controlling the Security forces) is thought by some to be the result of an "agreement" between the two men. 25X1X

2. In this connection, source went on to report the belief among certain Albanians that, while there is some antagonism between Hoxha and Shehu, the Soviets are keeping the two men well under control, both of whom have many strong and faithful followers. The followers of Xoxe, of whom many are still allegedly in Government jobs, would like to see either of them fall so that they (Xoxe's men) may exploit the resultant situation. The Soviets, however, are said to have found a way to satisfy the egotism of both men, and informants report talk in Party circles that after the election of the new National Assembly Enver Hoxha would continue as Chief of State and Prime Minister, but all the work of administration would fall upon Shehu.
